

Sunshine Rare Coins Email Newsletter #9 Fall 2018 Edition!

Welcome to my Fall email newsletter. I hope all of you had a great Thanksgiving holiday. Since my last newsletter, I have been busy buying and selling coins, including at the recent Baltimore Show.

Fall Baltimore Show Report

I recently returned from the Fall Baltimore show, the final major coin show of the year. The Whitman Baltimore Show is always a great show with many dealers and collectors attending. Baltimore is my collectors. This Fall show had good activity, but there were definitely fewer people on the floor than usual. In spite of that, I had a really good show, with strong sales overall and I moved both new and older coins. I did manage to buy some really cool pieces at the show, which you can see in this newsletter. Since I came back from the show, I have been working hard and have found even more great coins that I have just listed on the website for your perusal.

Stack's Bowers Auction - Archangel Collection

Stack's Bowers had a great auction, with the highlight being the incredible Archangel collection of Colonial coins. I had a great time looking at the lots closely in New York before the auction and I was very impressed with the quality. It was one of the best offerings of Colonial coins in a long time, with some examples being finer than the Partrick, Kendall and Newman collections. There were even a few extremely rare 1792 patterns - such as a beautifully toned 1792 Half Disme in PCGS MS-63 CAC and a 1792 Copper Disme in PCGS AU-58+ CAC. There were also many Colonials that haven't appeared publicly for a very long time. Even if you don't collect Colonial coins, it wonderful stand-alone catalog that is very interesting and informative. I recommend you to take a look at it if you haven't already.

My next major show I will be attending is the January FUN Show in which will be held this year in Orlando, Florida. It's one of the biggest and best shows of the year. As usual, Heritage will be having a large auction, with tens of millions of dollars worth of coins going across the auction block. One of the major collections being sold include the phenomenal Weinberg collection of Early US Coinage, which includes some more 1792 Patterns and some incredible Early Copper.

Please keep checking my website in the next few weeks because I add new coins frequently. If you are looking to sell quality Bust or Seated coins or have anything that you might want to consign to me - please contact me. Also, please let me know if you have any coins on your want list that I can help you find - not all of my coins make the website. I have a growing number of collectors who give me want lists so I can help them find that special coin.

I also set up at the Parsippany, NJ Show almost every month. It's the first Sunday of the month and it's always a fun one day local show with

I have just added a large group of choice NEWPS to the website from the Fall Baltimore show including some premium quality Bust and Seated coins across all price ranges.
